Bengali Association of South Florida (BASFL)

Bengali Association of South Florida (BASFL) is a non profit Socio Cultural organization for the Indians who are born and brought up in the Bengali Culture.

BASFL members are

- In Powerful Positions in Corporate and Government
- One of the most highly educated communities in South Florida, boasting of Ph.D's, top University scholars, Post Graduates in Business, Medicine, Management, Engineering, Accounting, Law, Sciences, and Liberal Arts.

A Rich, Vibrant Community

The Bengali community has long roots in south Florida dating back to 1968 when immigrants came to South Florida from India as a student for their higher studies in local Universities. In 1990, people from the Bengali community formed an association to promote Bengali Culture in South Florida for younger generation and got really big in 2007 when it became The Bengali Association of South Florida (BASFL). BASFL is one of the young and energetic organizations in South Florida showcasing the rich and diversified culture of India, especially of Bengal. People, who formed BASFL, are actively involved in and dedicated to nurturing Asian Indian culture in South Florida for over a decade. BASFL, a nonprofit organization is actively participating in blending Asian Indian culture with the culture of North America and synthesizing the best. Over the years, BASFL has been extremely active culturally, religiously, philanthropically, socially, contributing to various institutions of society.

BASFL has organized Picnic, Saraswati Puja, Holi, Durga Puja, and Diwali Celebration successfully over the years in South Florida.

High Purchasing Power, Strong Interests

BASFL is an extremely affluent community, with yearly incomes ranging from $50,000 to $500,000. Its highly placed members possess high purchasing power and have strong interests in investments, real estates, cultural shows, traveling, touring, consumer durables, electronics, cars etc. Almost 50% of the community travel to India (mostly Kolkata) every year, and almost every family spends in vacations to resorts each year, share markets, and entertainment. Here is a potential market that sellers of these goods and services would profit well by tapping into.
